

Bands:

The Buckshots (Swe)

The bands approach to rockabilly can be described as “modern”, their sound is raunchy and wild. They are not influenced by only artists from the 50’s era, but also the renewers. You can find also swing from their sound. Their performing is full of wildness, be ready for the storm!

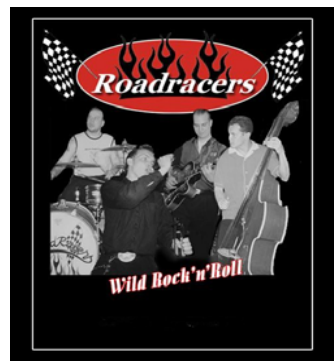

Foggy Mountain Rockers (Ger)

These guys don't need introductions! They are wild to watch and great to listen to! They play like there is no tomorrow. You don't want to miss them, whether you're a Ted, or a Rockabilly or just Rockin'.

The Roadracers (Fin)

Hi octane rockabilly quartet
They fill your tank with energy,
that you'll never forget!
They'll infect you with V8-FEVER
Be ready to meet them...

Streamline59 (Fin)

They play no rockabilly, neobilly or Psychobilly, They play Steam'a'billy
This train won't stop but taking more people along to nirvana of rock'n'roll

The MadCats (Fin)

They're young,
and the very first time abroad,
But their inspiration will make you dancing like hell

The Rock'n Feller (Est)

-50's style band from Tartu, Estonia
They have spirit of rock'n'roll in their music.
Young but representing gloriously
Estonian rock'n'roll

Neva River Rockets (Rus)

Electric solo guitar, acoustic rhythm guitar and an upright bass, this is the most classical combination to perform southern traditional American music: hillbilly, western-swing as well as country blues and Dixie bop (later it was called rockabilly)

Nina & the Mainstreet Stompers (Swe)

50's ROCK & ROLL
band from Sweden with a touch of WESTERN SWING And SURF.
Nina's voice will touch your ears!
